Observations

- Overall, teachers seem to be highly satisfied with the library facilities, faculty cooperation, and college administration.
- However, there is noticeable dissatisfaction regarding the availability of adequate resources, suggesting that this area requires attention.

The feedback indicates that while the college excels in providing library facilities, faculty cooperation, and administration, it needs to focus on improving resource availability and career development opportunities for teachers.

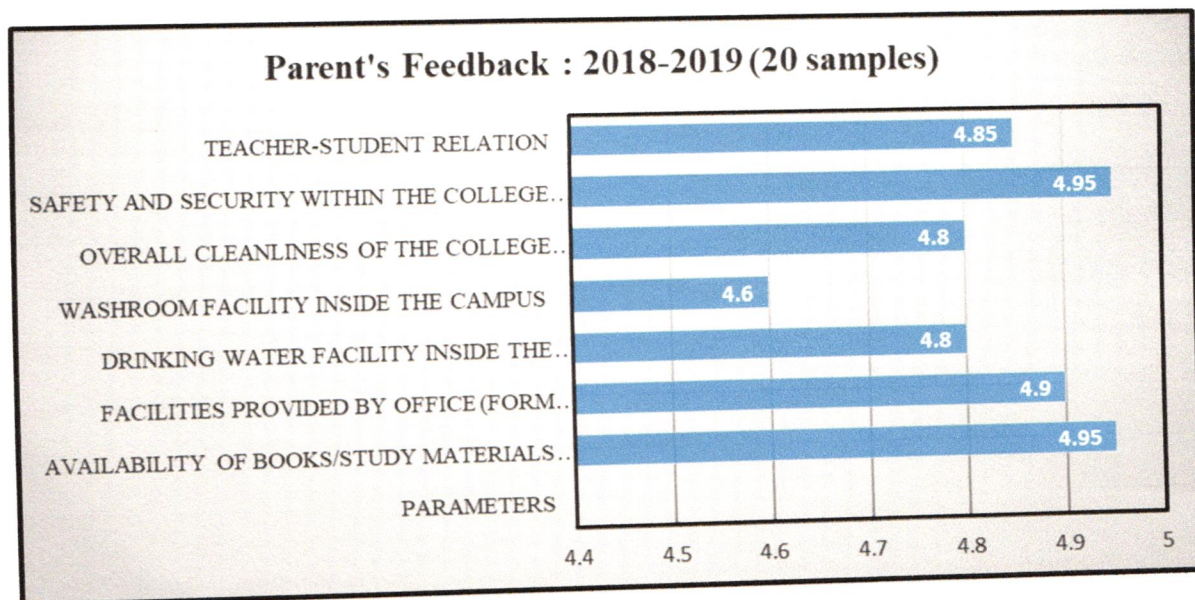

Parents' Feedback

Methodology

Feedbacks were collected from the parents of the final year students. Out of the total forms received 20 forms were selected randomly for analysis.

Analysis

The parents were requested to give their feedback on 8 parameters

Observations

- Overall, parents are very satisfied with the various aspects of the college, especially with safety and security, and the facilities provided by the office.
- The lowest score of 4.0 for the availability of study materials still indicates a positive feedback, but highlights an area that could be enhanced to achieve even higher satisfaction.
- The feedback indicates that parents are very pleased with the safety, security, and administrative support provided by the college, while suggesting that the availability of study materials could be improved to match the high standards of other areas.

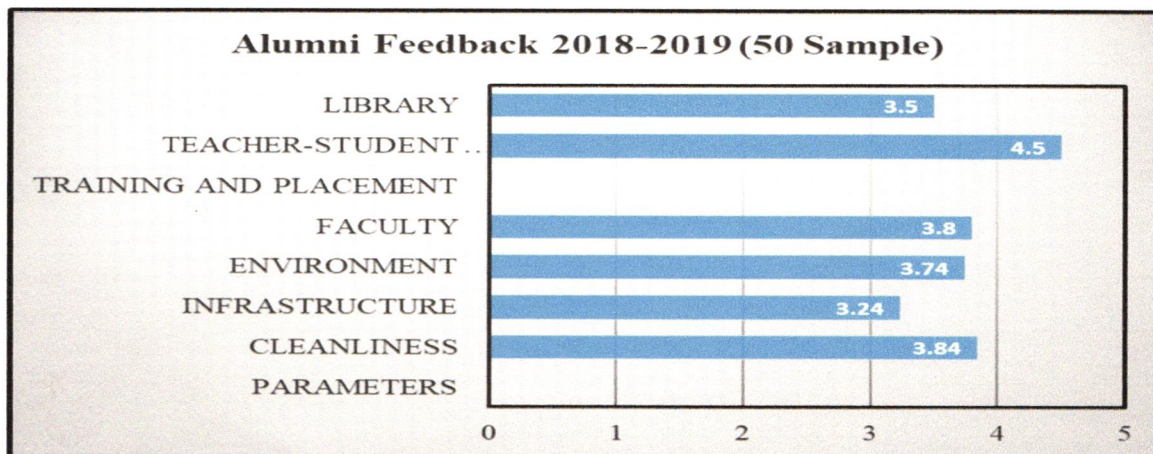

Alumni's Feedback

Observations

- It has been observed that the alumni are mostly happy with the services provided by the college and supporting infrastructures for the curricular implementation and student support.
- The graphical report reflects that the students is dissatisfied with Training and Placement opportunities provided by the college. This is quite expected as the scope of campus recruitment and or direct job opportunity is very less for the general degree students in humanities branches.
